For Your Prayers...

The sick... the faithful departed... peace in the world in 2015... the homeless... refugees... victims of violence... those who find the winter hard... for vocations to the priesthood... the old parish priest, Fr Stephen Day... the new parish priest, Fr Simon Stephens...

Copies of Rotas – Counters, Cleaners, Flowers

These are displayed in the porches of the churches.

I say, I say, I say...

Bert: I asked my wife for a snooker table for Christmas, but she gave me a photo of the pair of us she'd framed herself. Bob: That was nice – you weren't disappointed then? Bert: Not at all! I bought her a snooker table...! Ho, ho, ho..!

Thank you...

THANK YOU for all your kindness and generosity over Christmas. This fourteenth one we've had in the parish is, as you all know, our last before moving to Coventry. It has been special because of being the last but also, because of the move, it has been very busy too. Thank you, therefore, for the previous thirteen years! We cannot hope to sum up those years in a few brief words as so much has happened. Within our family, we think of the children growing up and knowing Chapel End as home, knowing the parish as an extended family and knowing many of you as friends too. We think of the Barbecues, Easters, pilgrimages to Walsingham and Christmases past that we have enjoyed with you. We remember so many lovely people who were so much part of the parish over the years but who have since been called to their reward. There have been the joys of finally paying for our two new churches, of finishing the car park at St Anne's, of struggling through the streets of Rome with the crucifixes now one each in both our churches, of the saga of mending St Anne's leaky roof, of – well, more than we can say. Thank you for putting up with us all! And accept apologies for any failures and shortcomings in our time here.

We hope to be back at the invitation Fr Simon Stephens for a final Mass sometime before Lent. In the meantime, thank you all so very, very much. We know that you'll make your new priest welcome and we hope that he will be as blessed by being here we have been. He has much to look forward to!

May God bless all the people of this parish, may He continue to keep St Anne's and St Joseph's churches in His care, and may He grant eternal rest to our departed parishioners. All of you are in our prayers – please keep us in yours.

Goodbye and God bless
